

Allowed Web API Views

Edit Allowed API Views is used to enable views to be visible from the Web API. For security reasons, you need to whitelist any view that needs to be accessible from the Web API. To add a new entry, choose Actions > Insert. Add the name of the view to the text field, and select the Enabled checkbox to add the view to the whitelist. You can deselect the checkbox to remove the view from the whitelist.